Dear Ms. Shea,

I received your voicemail last week. Before we begin discussing scheduling consultation, the Tribe would like to make sure that it has all of the technical reports and other materials that would be relevant to the potential impacts of the proposed project on its treaty rights, reserved water rights, and religious rights. How do you propose that we ensure that we have all of that information? We are equipped to host an electronic file transfer. Please advise. I look forward to discussing with you further.

Best regards,

Nicole Ducheneaux
